No withdrawals will be made unless ordered by the court. Proof of such investment must be placed in and become a part of the court record and be retained by the Clerk of the District Court. Upon final determination by the Court as to the ownership of such invested funds, an order must be drawn directing the attorney who made the original investment to payout all proceeds to the designated parties. Counsel should file with said original one copy of the journal entry for certification to the county clerk pursuant to said statute.
- (c) Citations, orders to appear, and bench warrants. Citations, orders to appear, and bench warrants should contain the same information so that when the respondent/defendant appears or is produced, the court may readily contact the attorney representing the party who filed/ requested the same.

The Court recommends they be submitted to the opposing party prior to the taking of depositions. Substantially the same interrogatories may be used in other personal injury actions.

RULE 123 - SELECTION OF JURIES

The following procedures shall be used for the selection of juries:

- (a) Adequate number. Prospective jurors will be summoned by the jury clerk in sufficient numbers to provide adequate jury panels for jury trials scheduled by the judges of the district court. Jury panels shall be randomly selected using an automated system which contains the county voter's registration records and the Department of Motor Vehicle drivers' license list (K.S.A. 43-162).
- (b) Summons date. At least twenty (20) days before the attendance date of a jury panel, the jury clerk will summon the selected persons by mailing a written notice to each person by first class mail, postage prepaid.

RULE 124 - PRETRIAL MATTERS

(a) Pretrial Conference Required - Exceptions. There shall be a pretrial conference in every civil jury case unless counsel for the parties stipulate in writing that no useful purpose would be served by the pretrial conference and such stipulation is approved by the judge of the division to which the case is assigned.

(b) Notice of Pretrial Conference. Reasonable notice of the time set for a pretrial conference shall be given by the Court by mail, facsimile or e-mail to counsel of record, or to the parties. Upon receipt of notice of setting for a pretrial conference, counsel for each party shall complete the pretrial questionnaire as set out in the appendix to these rules and distribute the same to opposing counsel and the court at least one week prior to the conference.

(c) Full Use of Discovery Encouraged. Attorneys shall make full use of all discovery procedures provided in K.S.A. 60-226 through 60-237, instead of seeking information or admissions at the pretrial conference.

(d) Presence of Trial Counsel Required. The attorney who will actually conduct the trial shall appear and conduct the pretrial conference. If there is good cause shown why the actual trial attorney cannot appear, the court may proceed, and the appearing attorneys should be familiar with the matter so that a meaningful pretrial may be conducted. Local counsel will also be present.

(e) Procedure. See Kansas Supreme Court Rule 140.

(f) Pretrial Order-Preparation by Counsel. At the close of the pretrial conference the court shall direct that a pretrial order be prepared by counsel. The court shall designate the attorney who will be required to prepare and submit a proposed pretrial order to opposing counsel and obtain written approval thereon and file the same with the clerk within the time fixed by the judge. If the parties cannot agree on the language thereof, each of the parties shall file with the judge's administrative assistant a suggested pretrial order within five (5) days thereafter, and the judge shall settle the order on notice.

(g) Pretrial Order - Contents. A suggested form of the pretrial order is appended to these rules and its use is recommended to the bar.

RULE 126 - EX PARTE ORDERS AND CONTEMPTS

(a) Ex Parte Orders Where Other Party Has Appeared. No ex parte order, except in cases of emergency, shall be entered in any case in which an attorney for the other party has appeared of record. Counsel shall make a good faith effort to contact opposing counsel prior to requesting the Court to issue such an ex parte emergency order. This rule shall not apply, however, to an order granting leave to file out of time endorsed on the pleading or document to be filed at the time it is filed, orders of dismissal, or show cause orders for contempt of court.

(b) Contempts. No process shall issue for a proceeding in indirect civil contempt of court except upon the filing of a written accusation setting forth succinctly and clearly the facts alleged to constitute such contempt, a copy of which shall be served upon the accused or his counsel together with an order fixing the time and place for a hearing on the matter, as provided by K.S.A. 20-1204a. If the accused shall fail to appear as ordered, an attachment for his or her arrest may be issued. No attachment shall otherwise issue for his or her arrest except upon a showing to the judge of the division to which the case is assigned that the accused is not amendable to other process or other special circumstances. In the event an attachment is sent to any other county, the sheriff of this county shall not be required to go to such other county for the purpose of returning the accused to this county unless he is first tendered his costs and expenses.

(c) Ex Parte Orders: Governmental Agencies. No ex parte restraining order shall be entered against the city, state, or other governmental agency, or its agents or employees acting on behalf of such city, state or governmental agency, except (1) upon evidence under oath of the probability of irreparable damage, and (2) upon notice to counsel for the party to be restrained and an opportunity to appear in opposition to such order. Any hearing on such matter may be informal and may be called by the court on oral notice, or otherwise, and may be for such time as to the court may deem reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances involved. No notice and hearing shall be necessary where the court shall make a finding that because of the circumstances a hearing is not appropriate.

(d) Support Orders. Each order for child support, or for maintenance when there is also an order for child support, entered in this district shall include the language set out in the Family Law Rules.

RULE 127 - COURT'S RECORDS

- (b) Sign Out. All files leaving the vault area must be signed for on individual checkout cards.
- (c) Red Files. Under no circumstances shall red files be allowed to leave the vault area.
- (d) Filing Procedure. All persons permitted to access to the vault area must pull their own files, and place a red file on the shelf without a checkout card attached. When returning the file the clerk will be responsible for putting the file in its proper location and removing the red file.
